

SUNDAY, AUGUST 1 | 5 PM
SOLON COMMUNITY PARK

Park opens at 4:30 PM. Bring your own lawn chairs.

Solon Symphony proudly presents Disney Classics and more! A family-friendly concert for all. Solon Symphony, conducted by Laura Joss, operates under Solon Center for the Arts and comprised of musicians from Solon and the surrounding communities.

Masks are required as you arrive, as you move about the grounds, and as you exit. All attendees must abide by proper social distancing protocols. Concert attendees should monitor their own symptoms and should stay home if not feeling well.

We need YOUR support!

Solon Center for the Arts is proud to announce our first Solon Symphony concert as part of the Music in the Parks series!

Solon Symphony firmly believes in the significance and power of music to inspire community, build connections, and serve as a catalyst for the growth and development of people in many ways. Our performances are affordable opportunities intended for the families in our community, so all ages are welcome to hear orchestral music. Solon Symphony desires to provide diverse educational experiences for children and adults that builds and supports the appreciation of music for all generations. Our concert programs strive to enrich and transform lives through music and community engagement.
