

Congratulations to America's eCities!

Google's eCity Awards recognize the strongest online business community in each state. These cities' businesses are using the web to find new customers, connect with existing customers and fuel their local economies.

Solon, Ohio

Solon's Video Remote Interpreter service offers 24/7 access to sign language interpreters. Computers equipped for the service are available at an array of locations including the city hall, fire stations, and senior center.

